

SOUTH RICHMOND

JUDGE SOUTHWELL WILL HEAR MOTION TO-DAY

Chesterfield People Differ as to Location of School at Elkhart Springs.

M'DANIEL SPEAKS TO LEAGUE

Association Will Aid Anti-Saloon League in Securing Signatures Petitioning for State-Wide Election on Prohibition.

Judge Robert G. Southwell, of the Chesterfield Circuit Court, will tomorrow hear the motion to dissolve the injunction brought against the Manchester District School Board by several citizens of that district. The injunction seeks to prevent the school board from continuing the erection of a public school building at Elkhart Springs.

The injunction secured by the citizens resulted from the disintegration which arose when the school board determined to build the school at the Elkhart Springs. Protests were made to the board and a petition was filed asking that action be delayed in the matter until after the annexation proceedings had been disposed of. The board refused to do this, and the injunction was the result.

At the proceedings to-morrow, William M. Justice will appear for the school board, while Julian Gunn will represent the citizens who brought the injunction proceedings.

Meeting Is Postponed.
The sudden death of Delegate D.
L. Toney, at his home last night, caused the Southside High School to postpone its meeting scheduled to take place in the Hastings Court at 8:30 o'clock until Monday night, July 6.

Administrator John Hirschberg was to have addressed the members of the club and their friends last night, and several officers of the organization were to have spoken also. A smoker was scheduled to conclude the program for the evening.

Case on Trial To-Day.

The assumption case of E. H. Moor, administrator, vs. William E. Whitlock, will be tried in the Hastings Court, Part II, to-day.

Dr. McDaniel Addresses League.
Rev. George W. McDaniel, D. D., pastor of the First Baptist Church, last night addressed the Virginia Constitutional League at a called meeting in the Bainbridge Street Baptist Church.
A large congregation was present and followed closely the remarks of the minister.

The league is a recently organized temperance association, and is composed of more than 300 qualified voters. It expects to take up the consideration of plans to aid the Anti-Saloon League of Virginia in circulating petitions calling for a vote on State-wide prohibition, at an early date.

In his speech last night Dr. Mc-Daniel discussed the question of Statewide prohibition in detail. Although he advocated this means of combating the saloon, his remarks were not concerned solely with the eradication of the barroom, but were in the nature of a discussion on the same means of controlling the situation.

Vacation at Hot Springs.
Rev. Louis Gibbs, rector of the Church of the Good Shepherd, at Forest Hill, is now spending his vacation at Hot Springs, Va. He has been away since the early part of the week, and will probably remain at the Hot Springs until after the 1st of July.

Boy Scouts Give Concert.
A concert, under the auspices of the Boy Scouts of America, Troop No. 11, was given last night in the Porter Street Presbyterian Church. The program was a lengthy one and was participated in by a number of well-known local physicians, as well as several of the Scouts. A large audience appreciated the efforts of the young entertainers.

Ten at Bon Air.
The lawn fete at the Cherokee Tea Garden, in Bon Air, attracted a number of South Richmonders last night, as well as several large automobile parties. The receipts from the fete are to be given to the Ice Mission fund, and, judging from the number of persons who were present, quite a sum was realized. An interesting program had been arranged and the fete did not close until late in the evening.

Church Entertainment.
Under the auspices of the Ladies' Sewing Circle of the Stockton Street Baptist Church, the playlet, "The Family Album," and an attractive program was presented in the church last night. The musical program was furnished by the quartet composed of W.
J. Morrisette and Mr. Sharitz, Mrs.
Rosa Roberts and Miss Mildred Shellings, and the solos of Miss Edna Stiles. Recitations were given by Misses Mary Nichols and Nettie Holson and Mrs. Mayhew.

Property Transfers.
According to deeds filed in the Hustings Court, Part II, yesterday, Todd & Nis, trustees, transferred to James H. Wrenn the property known as lot No. 8 in the plan of Bellevue, in consideration of $2,175. Another deed noted the sale of this property by James H.
Wrenn to Pearl B. Flournoy for $10 and other considerations.

Martha A. Hughes et als. have transferred to Samuel Meyer a site fronting twenty-five feet on the northern line of Hull Street, between Fourteenth and Fifteenth Streets, for $10 and other considerations.

Degree Team at Stuart Lodge.

The degree team of Henderson Lodge of Odd Fellows last night aided in the degree work at Stuart Lodge. The meeting began at 8 o'clock and lasted until nearly midnight.

Baptists Meet To-Morrow.

The annual meeting of the Middle District Association will be held at Woodland Heights Baptist Church tomorrow morning at 10:30 o'clock. It is expected that a large number of the members will attend this meeting as there is much business of importance to come before it.

GOLD MEDAL TO GORGAS

Presented in Recognition of Services in Canal Zone.
At Atlantic City, N. J., June 23.—Installation of Dr. Victor C. Vaughan, of Ann Arbor, Mich., as president and the presentation of a gold medal to Surgeon-General William C. Gorgas in recognition of his services as officer in charge of sanitation work in the Panama Canal Zone featured the initial session of the sixty-fifth annual convention of the American Medical Association here to-day.

UNDERWOOD MAKES MOVE
TOWARD ENDING SESSION

Secures Unanimous Consent for Consideration Next Monday of Pending Legislation.

OTHER LEADERS JOIN WITH HIM
His Decisive Stand for Clearing House Calendar Said by Members to Show Differences That Have Arisen With President.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Washington, June 23.—Democratic Leader Underwood made his first move to-day for the forcing of an early adjournment by securing unanimous consent in the House for the consideration next Monday of pending legislation, instead of its order on the House calendar.

This motion comes always at the beginning of the end of every session of Congress. It is designed to rush legislation, as it forces the attendance of two-thirds of the House membership, that number being required to take up any bill for consideration in the face of objection.

Republican Leader Mann and Progressive Leader Murdock joined with Mr. Underwood, after the latter had secured the necessary vote, to force the consideration on Monday of any of the conservation bills. The latter bills are considered now a part of the President's legislative program for the House after the most important appropriation bills, and while the Senate is working out the trust legislation.

The decisive stand taken to-day by Mr. Underwood for clearing of the House calendar of the most important bills is said by House members to show the differences that have arisen between the President and the Democratic majority.

Mr. Underwood has denied that his efforts to bring about an early adjournment are for the purpose of clearing the calendar, but he is persisting in those efforts in the face of the determined opposition of the President that the trust legislation shall be passed at this session.

Mr. Underwood and other House leaders are of the opinion that adjournment will be delayed indefinitely. If the trust legislation is to be passed at this session, the Senate is making radical changes in the trust bills as they passed the House. It will take weeks for the Senate to complete its consideration of these bills, and the House and Senate together on their disagreements.

Spurred on by Mr. Underwood, House members in charge of the appropriation bills are rushing them through the House. Conference reports on the House calendar are expected to be made by the House. Chairman Fitzgerald is expected to get through this week his sundry civil bill. The general defendency bill, the only appropriation bill in committee, will be brought up before the House next week. It is a small bill, and can be passed in a few hours.

With these bills out of the way, Mr.
Underwood has given notice he will begin to deal with the President's proposal for an adjournment of Congress without the passage of the trust bills.

FIFTY CHILDREN INJURED

Pavilion at Atlantic Park Collapses During Picnic.

Atlantic City, June 23.—Fifty children were injured here to-day when a pavilion at a local amusement park collapsed during a picnic given for the inmates of the local Hebrew Orphan Home. Two hundred children were in the pavilion at the time. None of the injuries was fatal.

HERRICKS GIVE BIG DINNER

American Ambassador and Wife Entertain Notable Guests.

Paris, June 23.—Myron T. Herrick, the American ambassador, and Mrs.
Herrick to-night gave a dinner in honor of the French Premier, Rene Viviani, and his wife, Antoinette Dubouché, Speaker of the Senate, Paul Deschanel, Speaker of the Chamber of Deputies, and a number of ambassadors and other members of the French diplomatic corps and their wives.

BIER BANKED WITH FLOWERS

Service for Mrs. Norden in Church Where She Was Married.

London, June 23.—The simple but impressive funeral service of Mrs. Norden was held at noon to-day for the late Mrs. Norden in the King's Welsh House Church, Mayfair.
The service was conducted by the Rev.
George W. Young, of New York. The flowers were banked in profusion around the peculiarly shaped casket in the altar and the pillars. A large congregation was present, including many singers with whom the late Mrs.
Norden had performed. Ambassador Pace was represented by his secretary, Mr. Douglas Adams conducted the service. The music, including the hymn, "Onward, Christian Soldiers," was supplied by a supplied choir.

GERMANS IN NICARAGUA
ADVISE AGAINST TREATY

Urge Government It Is Disposing of Concessions to United States for Too Little Money.

THEY PROMISE TO PAY MORE Interesting Statements Made Before Senate Committee on Foreign Relations at Secret Session by Senor Chamorro, Nicaraguan Minister.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Washington, June 23.—Senor Chamorro, Nicaraguan Minister, today advised the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations he had been informed that prominent Germans in Nicaragua, actively opposing the proposed treaty for German diplomatic sources, had advised the Nicaraguan government to refuse to approve the pending treaty with the United States. They claimed that the treaty was disposing of the concessions for too little money, and said Germany would pay more.

This was one of a number of interesting statements the Nicaraguan minister is quoted as having made to the committee during the secret session at which he was a witness. Members of the Foreign Relations Committee gathered in the morning for the purpose of and somewhat unwillingly statements of the minister, that the interference in this affair on the part of the Germans was official, but that the House like William Alden Smith believed that such representations as were made, were made by Germans in responsible positions in Nicaragua, who feared that if only $2,500,000 were obtained there would not be anything left to pay the claims of German subjects.

STARS AND STRIPES OVER
OFFICIAL RESIDENCE

Minister Chamorro also made public the very interesting fact that the Stars and Stripes were floating over the Nicaraguan minister's residence, and that there ever since the marines had been sent to Managua.

Explaining this incident, he said that when the marines reached Managua they were quartered at the official residence, the President moving elsewhere. In that way the flag was run up over the White House, and is flying there to-day.

"What do you think of the plan of keeping American marines in Nicaragua?" asked Senator Pomeroy, of Senor Chamorro.

The minister said he had no opinion to express, but added that he believed their presence was desired by the Nicaraguan government. Continuing in reply to further questions, he added: "The American marines were landed without the request of the authorities of Nicaragua; there has been no request that they be withdrawn, so far as I am aware, and I do not believe such a request will be made."

Asked what the marines were doing, the minister said that in addition to upholding the government by preventing a revolution, they are protecting the National Railway. This is the road upon which the New York financiers have loaned the government funds.

AFFAIRS CONTROLLED

The more this witness was questioned the more evident did it become that the political, as well as the financial affairs of the little republic were being controlled by the United States.
He said that former Minister George A. Weitzel sat with the council in Managua upon the approach of the national election, and that he determined upon the candidates to be run. The man chosen by the council was the present President, Adolfo Diaz, who was not more than 10 or 12 per cent of the people voting.

The Nicaraguan minister said he knew of no opposition to the treaty on the part of the people. They also favored the inclusion of the United States in the treaty, and he said the amount of money proffered in the treaty was acceptable to the people. From the general tenor of the minister's remarks he and other members of the existing government in Nicaragua realized that the protection of the United States was withdrawn, the government would be overturned. This is the point where William Alden Smith, Senator Borah and others are endeavoring to emphasize. They charge that in negotiating this treaty, providing for the United States protection and taking over the concessions for the sum of $2,500,000, the American State Department is neglecting the interests of the existing government, as to all its rights and purposes dealing with itself.

RATIFICATION OF TREATY

Secretary of State has informed the committee that the President has declined to ratify the treaty with Nicaragua.
The former on the ground that it is in violation of the rights of the United States, and that it is in violation of the rights that pass with the United States. The secretary intimated that the interests of these two countries could be purchased by the United States.

Senor Chamorro, the Nicaraguan Minister of Finance, is expected to discuss the proposed treaty with the committee on to-morrow. The committee on to-day decided to invite From Brothers & Co. and J. and W. Seligman & Co. to send representatives before the committee. Invitations also have been sent to the Rev. A. C. Conrad, who made an investigation of Nicaragua finances in the Taft administration, during the Estrada regime, and Ernest Wander, the financial agent of the Nicaraguan government. "Why do not come voluntarily they will each be subpoenaed."

TRADE COMMISSION BILL IS FAVORED IN REPORT

Senator Newlands Will Call Measure Up To-Day and Make It Unin-ished Business.

ENACTING CLAUSE REMAINS Only Feature of House Bill Kept In as It Comes From Lower Branch.
Proposed Commission Is to Determine What Is 'Unfair Competition.'

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Washington, June 23.—A strong report in support of the Senate Federal trade commission bill was made to that body this afternoon by Senator Newlands, who expects to call the measure up to-morrow and make it the unin-ished business. The Newlands bill is a substitute for the House measure, the only thing remaining in the bill as it came from the House being the enacting clause. They are alike in principle, and totally different as to details. In the Newlands bill, the proposed commission is given full power to determine what is "unfair competition," and empowers the commission to prevent such competition.

"The establishment of a trade commission when the Interstate Commerce Commission was established," says the report, "would have prevented the extraordinary development of monopoli-stic organizations in industry. If this commission had been in existence during this period, we would not now have to deal with such organizations as the International Steel Corporation, the United States Steel Corporation, the American Sugar Refining Company, the American Tobacco Company, and even the Standard Oil Company, which would have survived the dissolution of the old Standard Oil trust in 1925.
Such a commission would have prevented the development of the activities of a multitude of price-fixing associations in different branches of business, which, together with the great trusts have been the cause of the present high cost of living."

"With the development of public sentiment on the subject of a trade commission," the report continues, "the public view has naturally changed with respect to the extent of the power to be lodged in such a commission.
Some would found such a commission upon the theory that monopolistic industry is the ultimate result of economic revolution, and that it should be so recognized and declared to be vested with a public interest, and as such, be regulated by the commission.
This contemplates even the regulation of prices."

"Others hold that private monopoly is intolerable, unscientific and abnormal, and that it should be recognized as such, and be regulated by the commission.
This contemplates even the regulation
of prices."

"The commission proposed by the pending bill in the Senate is founded upon the latter theory. And," the report continues, "it would appear to be the part of wisdom to proceed carefully. With that end in view, the committee has aimed to provide a body which will have sufficient power ancillary to the Department of Justice to aid materially and practically in the enforcement of the Sherman law, and to aid the public interest, and as such, be regulated by the commission.
of prices."

EACH CLAIMS TO BE MURDERER

Man and Woman Held in Connection With Killing of Mariano.

New York, June 23.—Two persons, a man and a woman, each claiming to be the murderer of Giuseppe Mariano, whose body was found in a Harlem alley last night, were held in custody by police today. The man, who had nothing to do with the crime, was arrested last night after being masquerad-ed as a woman. She told the police she shot and killed Mariano when he threatened her for failing to become a party to a blackmailing scheme. The man, William Flack, who was arrested after the murder, was brought from his cell to the Tombs, and heard the girl's story.
He insisted that he murdered Mariano after robbing him.
